

SYRIAN ORPHANS & WIDOWS SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

UNSAFE HEAVEN

Hundreds of thousands of Syrians have been forced out of their homes. The armed conflict within their country has caused them to flee to neighbouring Jordan where they now live in refugee camps. They face starvation, cold winters, claustrophobic living conditions and concerns over the uncertainty of their futures.

The Fiyasbiylillah International Project of 2014 - the Syrian Orphans and Widows Sponsorship Program - will focus on helping those that are most vulnerable.
